The president gave his welcoming announcement and announced that the senators would be moving into their committees today. The vice president announced the social that was put on and encouraged everyone to eat and reminded everyone of the Chancellor Safety Walk.

The agenda was amended to add new senators. Megan Prestebak, Nicole Lecker, and Sheila Schroeder were applying for the senator positions. Joel Diny and Ricky Staley questioned the senators. The package vote passed 14-0-0.

Brenda gave an update on the Kress Center and talked about the upcoming dedication events. The first of those dedication events being the Dedication Dinner; taking place on Thursday, October 18. This dinner is primarily for the sponsors and they are looking for volunteers to give self guided tours and to greet. It will begin at 4:15 and dinner will begin at 6:30 which is when the volunteers are released and can then enjoy a free pizza dinner. The second event is the Groundbreaking Ceremony. This is informal and is for students and the community. The events will begin at noon and there will be a Women's Game at 3:00pm. Volunteers are needed for tours, to help in the family fun zone, receptions. There will be free athletic event tickets. The third and final event is the Concert taking place on November 10. 100 Volunteers are needed to load in and load out the band and then to also usher. E-mail Grant Winslow if interested in helping.

The Student Court gave a presentation presented by Emily Krambs. She then introduced Ben Schmidt who is also on Student Court.

The senators were then assigned to their committees. The secretaries re-introduced themselves and the senators were given a chance to meet briefly with their committees.

Lastly, the final announcements were given. Senator Czypinski reminded us of the Steps to Make a Difference. Senator Vandebusch and Vice President Duginske informed us that MaxU Day was on September 29.

The adjournment of the meeting was at 5:42 pm.
