

Cultural Humility to Cultural Reverence (CH2CR)

March 28, 2023

8:30am – 12:30pm

Virtual Learning via Zoom

Shawn Smith and Kyle Ashley from Share Training

4.0 Continuing Education Hours

Course Description:

Our CH2CR initiation workshop is more of a facilitated conversation than a “training”. Participants experientially explore how to meet each person where they are at by suspending judgment and implicitly imposing personal values and beliefs.

Cultural Humility aligns with and enhances Trauma Informed Care, Motivational Interviewing, and Reflective Supervision. These alignments are explored during an offering.

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe the 4-Principles of Cultural Humility: 1) Self-reflection + Lifelong Learning; 2) Served Person as Expert; 3) Community as Expert; 4) Institutional Reflection, Investment, + Modeling
2. Define Cultural Reverence.
3. Apply awareness of and examine implicit bias.
4. Discuss + Apply The Agreements that provide a structure for ongoing healthy and generative dialogue about culturally relevant topics.
5. Discuss concepts of aligning with the 4-Principles of Cultural Humility.
6. Define and Discuss: Culture, Cultural Groups, and Identity

About your trainers:

Shawn Smith is a Certified MI Trainer and member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT). The MINT is an international organization of trainers of Motivational Interviewing (MI), whose mission is to promote good practice in the use, research, and training of Motivational Interviewing and represents 35 countries and more than 20 different languages. Shawn has served the MINT Trainer Certification Committee, Inclusivity + Diversity Workgroup, and served as a mentor to new MINT members and initiated a quarterly meeting of the Wisconsin MINT members, which has given birth to an annual statewide conference on MI. Shawn has trained MI to thousands of professionals since 2009, including those serving in education, health care, behavioral health, workforce development, education, and the criminal justice system.

Kyle Ashley is currently a Community Engagement Manager in Southeastern Wisconsin, helping build connectivity among community-based organizations for better supportive service access for people in need.

WHY KYLE SHARES

“The art of conversation fascinates me. Problem-solving through impactful dialogue fills my bucket. I want to help people find common ground by equipping them with the tools to eliminate communication barriers. Tools like Motivational Interviewing have helped me tremendously throughout my career. I’ve learned how important listening is to building trust and understanding. I want to share that with as many people as I can. I’ve worked in the non-profit space for over a decade, serving both youth and adult populations as they sought to find success in the workforce. I have experience with career exploration outreach, case management, program development, program coordination, and training facilitation.”
